

The sacramental life, a life so grounded in inward Presence that its outward dimensions are a transparent witness to Spirit, is a vision I have only glimpsed.

Quaker Witness as Sacrament, p. 4

What would your life look like if it were grounded in inward Presence
morning to evening?

Draw a picture of it.

Write some queries that will help you find this vision throughout your day.
